If more people do BSL, more people ^{can} learn BSL. BSL is about lip reading and signing to other people. It's also ~~about~~ another language so more people can communicate.

In BSL we pronounce word differently and in different order. Please can you help us to encourage more people and schools to do BSL.

yours faithfully,

Theo

Dear Mr Murphy

My name is Michal Szczurek. I'm from year three. My class is called Sapphire and I'm 8 years old. Our subjects are British Sign Language (BSL). BSL is an amazing thing. You can use phrases like 'pet you what' and 'name you what' the world are not in the order you say them in real life.

We have been learning, reading and studying EL Deago. It is a fun book but it is not a ordinary book it is a graphic novel. BSL is a subject about sign, lipreading and knowledge. Some things are all about lipreading. If you're lipreading you need to have their ~~en~~ etchen and you need to pace their way. My class has a deaf child and his name is Lincoln.

Also when you are a cross the road from some one you can sign to

We want more schools to do BSL. BSL is very important for children so please let your schools to do BSL.

Yours Faithfully
Michal

Dear Mr Murphy,

I hope this letter finds you well.

Mr Murphy, I'm a child from Park View. My name is Tulsi and I am 7 years old. I have two sisters and I do gardening club. I'm in sapphire class and we have a resource provision for deaf children (Tree house). I sing to my self and draw a lot. I'm Hindi and I pray to my lord Krishna and I go to lots of Temples.

In school, we are learning about BSL (British sign language). We have a child in our class who is deaf. We are ~~learning~~ reading about El dego. There's a lot of stuff members for the Tree house (Resource provision). El dego can lip read but El dego can't do BSL (British sign language). Right now she is learning BSL (British sign language).

Right now BSL is very good because if you have a brother or sister and they don't know BSL (British sign language) you can teach them British sign language (BSL). you can teach your friends and the ^{res} ~~teer~~ house (Resource provision) to teach more people and more friends.

A lot of schools do not ~~know~~ know BSL but we want to give more schools (British sign language), you can go to other schools to teach BSL (British sign language). We want more schools to learn more BSL (British sign language) in their curriculums. Please can you help us?

Yours faithfully

Dear Mr Mursy,

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Zoë. I am a student at the best school ever, Park View! I am eight years old in year three which is one of the many year groups when we need to work really hard. We ~~even have a~~ ^{are very kind} to deaf children so kind actually that we have a resource provision for deaf children. It is where they do their learning because their learning is a bit different than ours.

Also, because we are so kind we now learn British Sign language (B.S.L) as our Modern Foreign language (M.F.L). We even have a deaf child in our class. In English we listen, learn, empathise and understand challenges by reading a book called El-Deaso, a deaf child (that is not her real name, it is just the name of her imaginary Super hero).

We horably think that other schools should learn B.S.L So they can communicate with the Deaf too. I think that they would enjoy it. They might even enjoy it as much as we do in park view. We have learnt that in sign language we say words in a different order. The order is the most important word first. For example "What is your name?" is simply "name you what". We have also learnt that we need to mouth the words while we sign in case the person you signing to can lipread. We also do expressions so it can help the person your signing to.

We think that if more schools learn B.S.L it would help the Deaf community, and as you know, that is good. To raise our class friendship, we even do it in partners and also that means that you have a person to sign to. The other person replies and then we switch over. Everyone can practice signing all together.

again, we hope this letter finds you well. Yours ^{Sincerely} ~~Truly~~ ^{Sincerely} Zoë
